Making Modern Language Learning Live

A two-day training course for primary school leaders, Key Stage 2 co-ordinators and primary school teachers with responsibility for languages

Wednesday 5th and Wednesday 12th February, 8.30am to 4.00pm

St Andrew's Church, Community Hub, Southbridge Road, Croydon CR0 1AG

The AMFLA method has been developed to provide primary schools with an invaluable resource for delivering a modern language at Key Stage 2 from September 2014, in time to fulfil primary schools' statutory responsibility.

AMFLA draws on compelling research into the teaching of English in European countries, successful modern language teaching in Victoria State, Australia, and the innovative pedagogy practised by 'bi-lingual' schools in Britain.

£150 for a single delegate or £250 for two from the same school

To book, email the completed form to:
tnorton@thehive-croydon.org or post

The HIVE Croydon is a Registered Charity 1149329

Language as Communication. Language as Culture. Language as Identity.

Language Awareness

Delegates will come away with:

- experience of 'live learning' a modern language with real pupils, taught by Maggie Morgan MBE, from St Paul's Primary School, Brighton;
- a DVD, for future reference, illustrating Maggie Morgan's expert pedagogy;
- a complete 'Language Awareness' course for Key Stages 1 and 2, to complement the AMFLA materials for modern language teaching, suitable for non-linguist teachers;
- two programmes of study and their resources, for French or Spanish, sufficient to cover a full term for classes in Years 3, 4, 5 and 6;
- numerous links to additional resources;
- the opportunity to subscribe to additional programmes of study in the future, in order to cover the full Key Stage 2 modern language curriculum;
- models for staffing modern language teaching collaboratively;
- a tool for school self-evaluation of outstanding practice in primary language policy and practice;
- the opportunity to join the AMFLA schools network dedicated to the further development of innovative practice in progressive language learning in the primary school and transition to KS3.
